

Ardené N. Fox, Esq.

Attorney Ardené Fox currently accepts family law, juvenile, and adoption cases. She is committed to providing high-quality legal representation to her clients and has dedicated her practice to supporting families through the most challenging times in their lives. In addition to working in private practice, Attorney Fox has served as an Assistant Attorney General representing the Arizona Department of Child Safety in dependency, guardianship, termination of parental rights, and adoption matters.

With experience representing both individuals and the State, Attorney Fox acknowledges that clients have different needs requiring tailored representation. As such, she does not believe in a one-size-fits-all approach to representing clients and has the ability to adapt her representation style to align with her client's specific needs.

In order to support her clients to make empowered and informed decisions that feel right for them, Attorney Fox understands that she must gain insight into each client's experience and perspective to effectively represent them. Most importantly, Attorney Fox remains dedicated to representing her clients with integrity and respect.
