

Laura V. Babione, Esq.

As a mom of six, there is not much that Scottsdale divorce attorney Laura V. Babione hasn't seen & keeping the best interest of children at the forefront during any case is a must. The children, above all else, are the client's top priority as well as hers. "It is in the children's best interest to have their parents effectively communicating and co-parenting as well as possible, so everyone can go on to the new chapter in their lives as soon as possible" she said. Ms. Babione is very understanding of her clients and the position they are in. She listens, understands, and then helps guide them through this very difficult time they are going through.

"My clients know I truly care about them and will go the extra mile to help them achieve their goals. Ms. Babione cautions that her kindness should not be mistaken as a weakness. "I will fight when I need to fight, but not for the sake of fighting," she said. "We need to pick our battles according to our priorities & a cost benefit analysis of each individual's situation that I walk each client through." Ms. Babione is a former collegiate softball player and is an avid baseball fan whether professional, youth or any baseball in between. In her spare time you will find her running, riding her Peloton bike, or at the baseball diamond doing her absolute favorite thing of all time, watching her son play baseball.

Ms. Babione is licensed to practice in Arizona, New York, and Virginia.
