

Michelle J. Perkins, Esq.

480.994.8824 mperkins@oplaw.com

Michelle J. Perkins has been practicing in Arizona since 1994. After two years as a solo practitioner, in 1996 she joined her grandfather, C.D. Owens, to form Owens & Perkins. In 2022, the firm celebrated 55 years in business. Ms. Perkins is well-known in the Scottsdale legal community for her practice in family law, mediation, estate planning, and probate, including representing clients whose families have been represented by the firm since Mr. Owens began his practice in Scottsdale in 1967.

Ms. Perkins' current practice focuses on complex, high net worth and ultra-high net worth divorce cases, as well as Mediation, Estate Planning, Probate, and Trust Administration. She has received a large number of accolades from professional organizations, including a Lifetime Achievement Award from the Successful Women Owners Network.
